Rep. Dalessandro selected to fill District 2 Senate seat

STATE CAPITOL, PHOENIX – Senator Anna Tovar and Representative Andrea Dalessandro released the following statements on the Pima County Board of Supervisors' selection of Rep. Dalessandro to fill the Legislative District 2 Senate seat vacated by the resignation of Sen. Linda Lopez.

Representative Andrea Dalessandro:

"It is an honor and a privilege to have been selected unanimously for this opportunity by the Pima County Board of Supervisors," said Rep. Dalessandro.

"I will continue to work hard for the people of Legislative District 2 and look forward to collaborating with my new colleagues in the Senate."

Senate Democratic Leader Anna Tovar:

"Rep. Dalessandro has represented her constituents extremely well both here at the Capitol and in her district by holding forums on Medicaid expansion and protecting senior citizens from scams," said Sen. Tovar.

"Andrea will be a welcome addition to the Senate Democratic Caucus as we continue our work to improve our schools, protect Arizona's vulnerable children and encourage economic growth for our state."
